BACK TO THE VOLGA...

Front: Stalingrad
Army: USSR/German
Date: September 1942
Players: 1-2

The reinforcements sent to support the 62nd Soviet Army have taken hold on the western bank of the Volga. Dozens of ships are crossing the river with more men and equipment.
The Soviet artillery definitely pounds the rear of the German lines but avoids targeting the river bank to avoid killing their own men. These are still clearing the area as quickly as possible to allow the heavy equipment to be landed. Once this stage is completed, the great offensive for the center of Stalingrad can begin... but that will take several more weeks.
