FANMADE SCENARIO

In a little backward hamlet.

August 17, 1944...
In the Falaise pocket, the Germans are caught in the ever tighter pincer move of the Allies. They need to capture this little hamlet to secure an escape route and make it out of the pocket to reach the rest of their army...

Battlefield and Deployment :

IT BOUNCED RIGHT OFF IT
RAM REPAIRS
WEAK POINT
from US deck :
PANZERFAUST
Both players draw four cards.

Particular Information :
Both sides have ONE set of 6 order tokens each.
Every player gets three order tokens per turn. Players of the same side confer to determine who gets what.
Optional:
At random :
At the start of each turn, lay all order tokens face down. All players take three of their side's tokens at random to determine the orders sequence.
Bluff tokens :
-Include the bluff token as well and draw until all tokens are chosen. One player will have four tokens and the other one three. Alternate who draws first each turn.
OR
-Include the bluff token but players still choose only three tokens each at random, leaving one unused.

Victory Conditions :
Gain access to and secure both buildings of the hamlet before the end of the supply phase in turn 6.
Buildings are secured when friendly troops occupy them and when no enemy troops are inside or in squares outside at the doors (marked with blue arrows).
The game ends once the buildings are secured.
If the buildings aren't secured by the end of the game, the side with the highest point score is the winner.

Set up :

Take two German order tokens, numbers 1 and 3, put these in a bag with two American order tokens, numbers 2 and 4. Each player draws a token to determine their side, units and when to deploy. Take the appropriate units and choose a corner assigned to your side. One player per corner,

Germans deploy first and third in either blue zone, Americans deploy second and fourth in either red zone.

After deployment gather up one set of US and one set of German order tokens, numbered 1 to 6.

Roll a die to determine initiative.
