C1—A, C2—A, C3—A, DD—5B

2- COMPOSITION OF THE ARMIES

3- PREPARATION

Both players recieve 4 cards. (Remove all Command Cards)
Remove all cards related to vehicles in the German deck.

Both players deploy their intial forces in the marked deployment zones.

Americans have the initiative and deploy first.
Put the turn tile onto the turn track with the American side showing for turn one.

Place objective markers on their designated interspaces.

Shuffle and randomly place America bonus tiles on their designated interspaces.

4- PARTICULAR INFORMATION

- The red objective marker is worth 8 VPs and the 2 yellow markers are worth 5 VPs each.
- Crapgame starts the game riding in the Willys jeep and all units can begin flipped on either active or inactive side.
- * Rifle grenades can be fired into the bunkers from 1 or 2 spaces away from an opening.
- Germans scores 2 VPs if they draw a Flak 88 card, this results in the the Flak 88 scoring a successful hit on the beachhead.

END

The game ends after turn 8 or after any supply phase in which an American unit controls the red objective.

* DESIGNER'S NOTES: The rifle grenade rule was implemented in this mission for 2 reasons, to add to the realism that is associated with this weapon and its use during this historic conflict and to add game balance.
Please feel free to use the Compendium rules for this weapon to add a higher level of difficulty to the American side.

5- VICTORY CONDITIONS

⇨ TALLY THE VPS FOR BOTH SIDES ONCE THE GAME ENDS.
⇨ THE PLAYER WITH THE MOST VICTORY POINTS WINS.

NOTE: POINTS SCORED FOR BREAKING UNITS COUNTS AS VPS TOWARDS EACH ARMIES TOTALS, GERMANS SCORE VPS FOR CONTROLLING ANY YELLOW OBJECTIVE MARKERS AND FOR NOT ALLOWING THE FLAK 88 TO BE CAPTURED(RED OBJECTIVE POINTS).
