Across the swamp... (A)

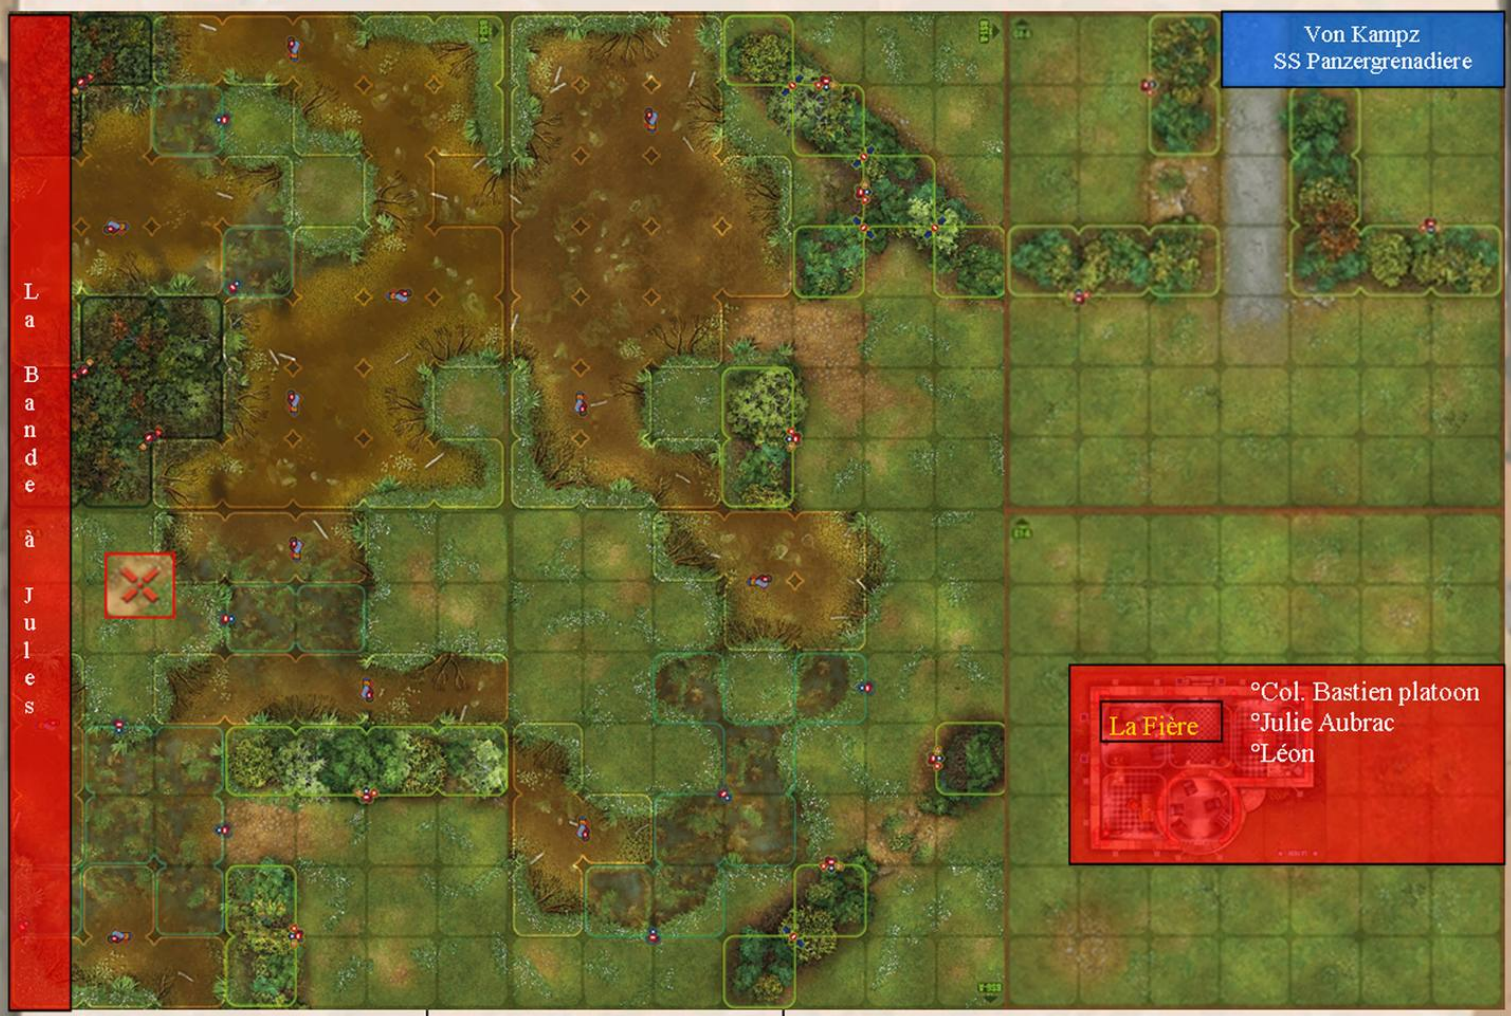

FANMADE SCENARIO

FFI vs Von Kampz

1944, the Maquis...

Crebleu!!! Now who would have thought Léon was a traitor? Certainly NOT me! Good thing Colonel Bastien DOES have a nose for these things. He sensed there was something amiss... He had Léon under surveillance for several weeks by his own men. We believed him innocent upto the very last moment, but then we found his notebook... Léon told us some story about using it to write his memoirs after the war. It would have been quite a read... EVERY detail about our organisation was written down... Sorry dear readers, this book shall never be published. Another gang, who's leader is known only as Jules, will now take care of Léon. He will be taken to headquarters and interrogated by "specialists". Non, non... Don't want to walk in his shoes... Waiting for dawn... we'll take him across the swamp to Jules' men.
Hope the Boche don't miss him so much they come looking for his whereabouts...

Battlefield and Deployment :

Map tiles :
BS 3-A BS 1-A C 4-A
BS 2-A BS 6-A C 1-A
La Fière (Saint-Mère-Eglise)

Requirements :
Core box
Battleground set
Gazette 0
Scenario pack :
Saint-Mère-Eglise
Punchboard :
SS Panzergrenadier

Set up :
-Germans deploy in the Blue zone.
-On turn 1 Von Kampz arrives in a Schwimmwagen.
-On turn 2 in the activation phase, the grenadiers appear aboard the halftracks.
-Colonel Bastien's troop, Julie Aubrac and Léon deploy in the red zone in or around La fière house.
-Léon is represented by a yellow objective marker.
-Jules' gang enters in the red zone on the West side.

Composition of the armies :

The Cards :

The French have NO cards. “C'est la guerre…”
Remove,
from German deck :
Aviation and Artillery
BOGGED DOWN
DON'T STOP
PRECISION
RAM
RESUPPLY
SURPRISE
WEAK POINT

Victory Conditions and Particular Information :

The game lasts for 8 turns.
German player draws 4 cards.

Léon :

-is represented by a yellow objective marker.
-takes up the space of one square and can't be stacked with a unit.
-is controlled by the French player as long as FFI escorts him.
-is considered “escorted” when at least one FFI unit is adjacent to him
-must be escorted by an adjacent FFI unit to one of the squares next to the red objective marker before the end of turn 8.
-is controlled by the German player when unescorted.
-has his hands tied and can't fight.
-has a movement of 4 and shall make a run for it as soon as he gets the chance.

Across the swamp... (B)

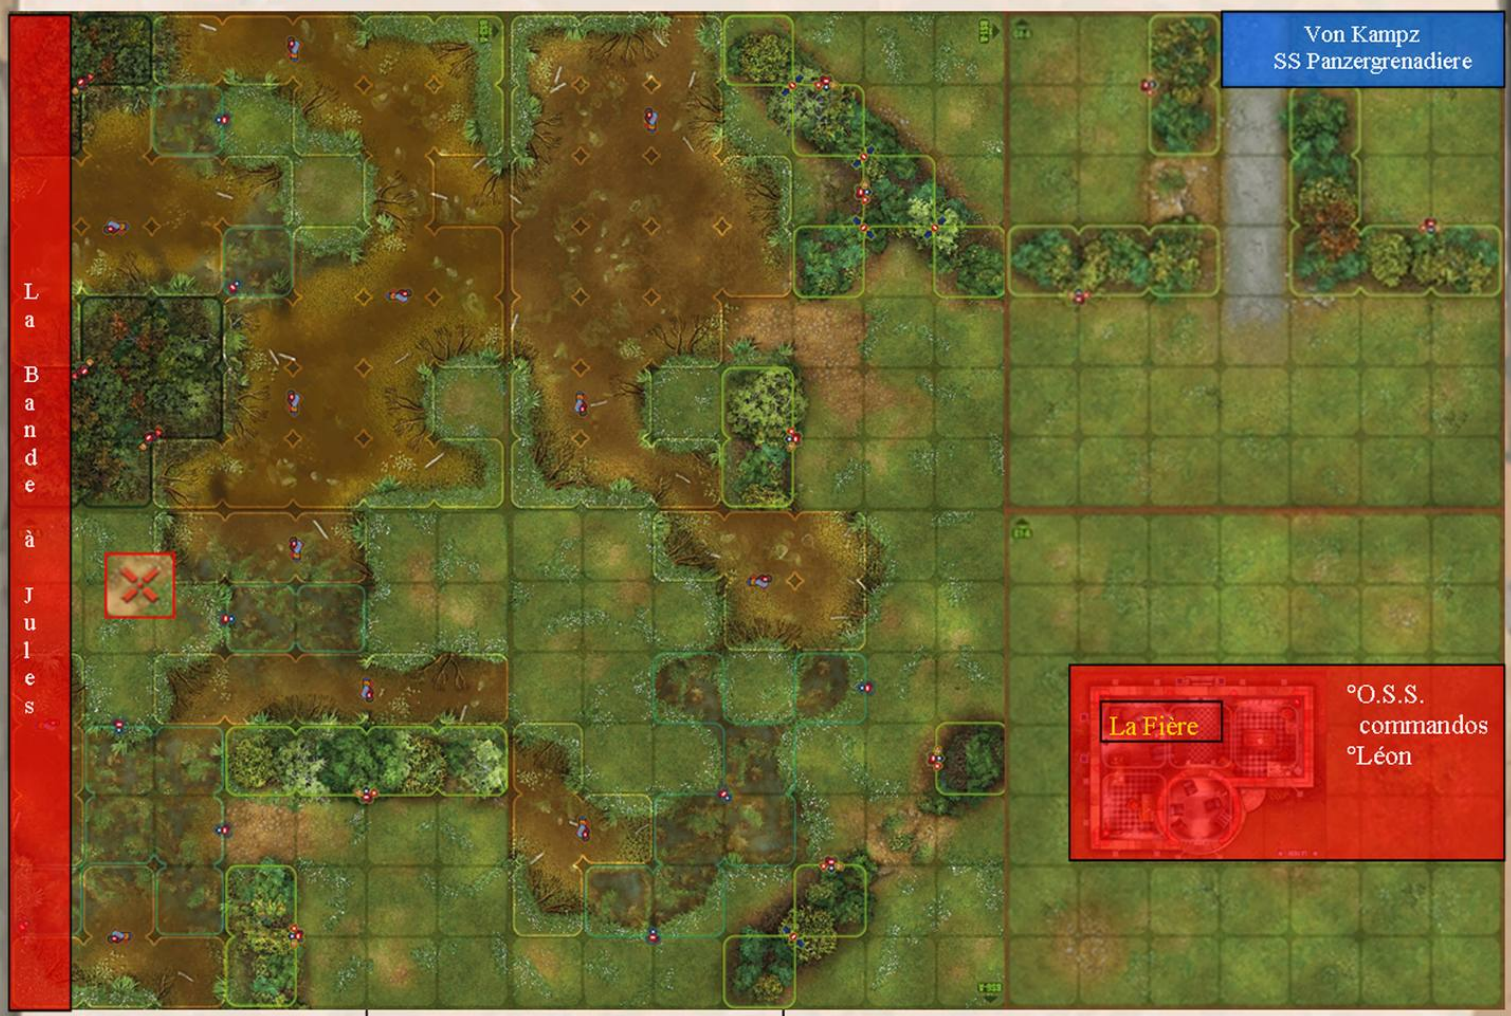

FANMADE SCENARIO

FFI/OSS vs Von Kampz

1944, the Maquis...

Crebleu!!! Now who would have thought Léon was a traitor? Certainly NOT me! Good thing the O.S.S. intelligence discovered this. He was tracked down by one of their sabotage units, who are nearby, operating behind enemy lines. Although we believed him innocent, the Americans found his notebook... Léon told them some story about using it to write his memoirs after the war. It would have been quite a read... EVERY detail about our organisation was written down... Sorry dear readers, this book shall never be published. Seems they caught Léon not one moment too soon... Another gang, who's leader is known only as Jules, will now take care of Léon. He will be taken to headquarters and interrogated by "specialists". Non, non... Don't want to walk in his shoes... Waiting for dawn... The O.S.S. commandos will take him across the swamp to Jules' men. Hope the Boche don't miss him so much they come looking for his whereabouts...

Battlefield and Deployment :

Requirements :
Core box
Battleground set
Gazette 0
Scenario pack :
Saint-Mère-Eglise
Punchboard :
US Rifle Platoon (yellow/blue)
SS Panzergrenadier

Map tiles :
BS 3-A BS 1-A C 4-A
BS 2-A BS 6-A C 1-A
La Fière (Saint-Mère-Eglise)

Set up :
-Germans deploy in the Blue zone.
-On turn 1 Von Kampz arrives in a Schwimmwagen.
-On turn 2 in the activation phase, the grenadiers appear aboard the halftracks.
-O.S.S. commandos and Léon deploy in the red zone in or around La fière house.
-Léon is represented by a yellow objective marker.
-Jules' gang enters in the red zone on the West side.

Composition of the armies :

Victory Conditions and Particular Information :

The game lasts for 8 turns.
Both players draw 4 cards.

Léon :

-is represented by a yellow objective marker.
-takes up the space of one square and can't be stacked with a unit.
-is controlled by the Allied player as long as OSS or FFI escorts him.
-is considered "escorted" when at least one OSS or FFI unit is adjacent to him
-must be escorted by an adjacent OSS or FFI unit to one of the squares next to the red objective marker before the end of turn 8.
-is controlled by the German player when unescorted.
-has his hands tied and can't fight.
-has a movement of 4 and shall make a run for it as soon as he gets the chance.

The Cards :

Remove,
from both decks :
Aviation and Artillery
PRECISION
RAM
RESUPPLY
RETURN TO SENDER
SURPRISE
from German deck:
BOGGED DOWN
GEBALLTE LADUNG
from US deck :
DON'T STOP
HIT AND RUN
IT BOUNCED RIGHT OFF IT
REPAIRS
WEAK POINT