Another town, another river, another bridge...

FANMADE SCENARIO

Summer 1944, Normandie...
Listen up men!
Further South our advance is blocked by a river.
In a town nearby there's a bridge across that river.
It is imperative that we secure this town and capture this bridge. First we have to deal with the Krauts who have set up defensive positions there. Experience has taught us their resistance will be fierce. We've got reports about armoured reinforcements coming in from the East. If they join up with the town defenders this will make matters worse. We must prevent this.
We will divide our forces in three groups :
Alpha, Bravo and Charlie. Group Alpha will move East and stop or delay the incoming reinforcements. Bravo and Charlie will mount a two-pronged attack on either side of the channel.
They will link up in the town and conquer, secure and hold it. The bridge must be taken intact.
Gentlemen... Good luck!

Summer 1944, Normandie...
Männer!...
An offensive will be launched from here to stop the enemy advance! Our panzers are underway as we speak.

If the enemy attacks we are to hold this town at all costs.

We shall defend every house and every street.

I'm counting on each and every one of you to show them how it is done.

I know you will not let me down!

To your positions! Schnell!!!
