Gold for Berlin.

It was a foggy morning and Wittmann was fuming. It Hauser bore the brunt of his rage.
"The British are rapidly closing in. They destroyed all our fuel reserves...
Those verdammte roast beef eaters!!! Here stands my fearsome TIGER immobile without GAS!!!
SHAMEFUL!! UNACCEPTABLE!!!
Only the Panzer IV's are still operational but we need my TIGER as well to escort this gold back to the Vaterland. The gold is badly needed to produce revolutionary weapons that will help us win this war..."
"Haupsturmführer Wittmann, we may have a solution. One of our Späher stated there are two fuel supplies nearby. There is some preserved in a collapsed warehouse and our second TIGER, out of action due to engine failure, still has propellant in the tank. The fuel is in the tank, which is a tank in a tank. Now isn't that funny?"
Judging by the speed It Hauser attained in making himself scarce, one might deduct that a certain tank commander was not amused...

Composition of the armies :

Concealed TIGER.
Bundesarchiv,
Bild 101I- 022-2935-18A /
Wolff/ Altvater /
CC-BY-SA 3.0

Set up :
Place two bonus tactics markers.
Position the second TIGER on its destroyed side.
The file tile represents the gold and is placed inside the house in the blue zone.
The fuel and detonator tiles represent gas.
One is placed on the destroyed warehouse, the other on the second TIGER.
The Germans set up in the blue zone.
Once positioned, Wittmann's TIGER can shoot but stays immobile until supplied with fuel.
The British have the initiative.
They move in on turn 1 from the North side

Requirements :
Core Box
Commonwealth Army Box
Punchboard :
Wittmann's Tigers

Map tiles :
C-2A C-4B
C-3B C-5B
C-1A C-6B

Battlefield and Deployment :

The Cards :
Remove, from both decks :
Artillery and Aviation
Both players draw four cards.

Victory Conditions and Particular Information :
The game lasts for 8 turns.
Major German victory :
If they can retrieve fuel and take it to Wittmann, also if they can pick up the gold and bring this to Wittmann, and if Wittmann, supplied with fuel can drive off the board on the East side with the gold.

Major British victory :
If they can pick up the gold, take it off the map through the North side
AND
succeed in destroying Wittman's TIGER and one other German tank.

Minor British victory :
If they can pick up the gold, take it off the map through the North side
OR
succeed in destroying Wittman's TIGER and one other German tank.