AT THE CROSSROADS

American troops are advancing into Germany. The beast is wounded but still dangerous. After many adventures, Wardaddy's Sherman runs over a mine and is immobilized at a crossroads. The radio broke down and has to be repaired as soon as possible. But young Norman, out on a reconnaissance mission, returns with grim news. An SS battalion is heading straight for their tank. Wardaddy convinces his men to stay and resist. They will hold to the last!

RULES

FURY

When the Wardaddy Recruitment Tile is present in an army, it is always accompanied by the 3 Recruitment Options; Coon-Ass, Gordo and Bible. Each of these provide a bonus to Fury.

When Fury receives a Damage marker (even if it is a Destroyed marker), the player can ignore it by turning over one of the 3 Recruitment Options. By doing this, the player grants Wardaddy the customizations present on the back of each option. He may benefit from these customizations, only if he's not in his tank.

COON-ASS adds the Double Fire special ability to Fury's Primary Weapon. When flipped, the option gives Wardaddy the Thompson customization.

GORDO gives a bonus of 2 to Fury's Movement Value . When flipped, the option gives Wardaddy the +2 Assault special ability.

BIBLE gives a bonus of 2 to the Combat Values of Fury's Primary Weapon. When flipped, the option gives 1 Grenade marker to Wardaddy.

EPILOGUE

The battle quickly escalated as the SS repeatedly assaulted. Waves of Hitler's henchmen suffered terrible losses before they finally overran the Sherman. Thus Fury's adventures came to an end, but the last stand of Wardaddy and his crew had succeeded in delaying the German counter-offensive whilst proving that the Übermensh was not so über!
