SCENARIO 1 - BRIEFING

BELGIAN GATE, JUNE 10

The access to the town of Carentan is blocked by a succession of waterways. Bridge #2 (over the Douve) is not yet repaired, and the engineers sent to repair it are pinned down by an eightyeight, so Lieutenant Colonel Robert G. Cole sends a recon patrol. The small force traverses the Douve by boat, and discovers a Belgian Gate on the last bridge, blocking it. We'll need to displace it so our troops can pass.

1- BATTLEFIELD SETUP AND DEPLOYMENT

2- RECRUITMENT OF THE ARMIES

3- PREPARATION

Without looking at them, place 2 Bonus tactic markers.

Remove the following cards from both decks: Weak Point, Precision, Bogged Down, It Bounced Right Off It, Hit and Run, Ram, Don't Stop!, Repairs, Surprise!, all the Artillery and Aviation cards. Also remove the German cards Booby Trap, Return to Sender, and Sneaky Shot, and the American card Panzerfaust.
Deploy the units in their respective deployment zones.

The German player has initiative, and thus deploys first. Place the corresponding marker on space 1 of the turn counter.

Each player draws 4 cards.

4- PLAYING THE GAME

This game lasts 4 turns.
The American player must displace the Belgian Gate before the end of the game.
In order to do this, he must have two units on two of the three spaces indicated with a red triangle at the start of an Order Phase or Supply Phase.

END The game ends at the end of turn 4 or as soon as the Belgian Gate is displaced.

5- END OF THE GAME AND VICTORY

American victory: The American player wins the game if he displaces the Belgian Gate before the end of turn 4.

CARENTAN:

In Scenario 2, the American player can place the Belgian Gate showing its "displaced" side.

German victory: The German player wins the game if the American player does not displace the Belgian Gate.

CARENTAN:

In Scenario 2, the American player cannot place the Belgian Gate showing its "displaced" side.

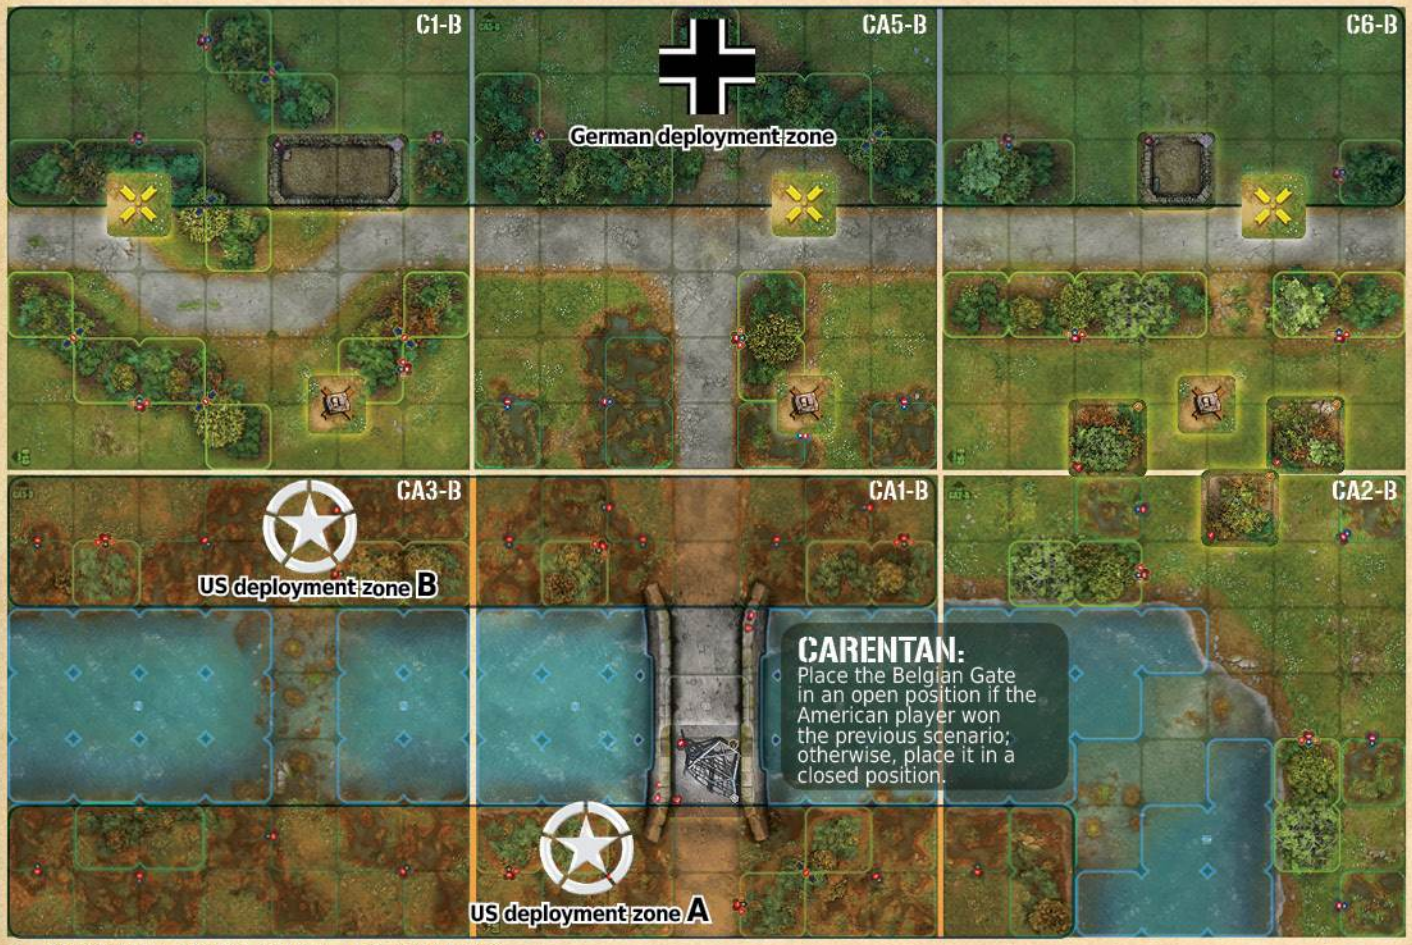

SCENARIO 2 - BRIEFING

PURPLE HEART LANE, JUNE 10

The bridges are still not repaired, but a few support vehicles have been able to pass. We must take advantage of this opportunity to take control of the road from Isigny, which would allow us to eliminate the battery of eightyeights that is preventing the engineers from opening the way for reinforcements.

2- RECRUITMENT OF THE ARMIES

3- PREPARATION

Without looking at them, place 3 Bonus tactic markers.

Remove the following cards from the American deck: Weak Point, Panzerfaust, Bogged Down, Surprise!, Return to Sender, and Precision, as well as all the Artillery and Aviation cards.

Remove the following cards from the German deck: Weak Point, Bogged Down, It Bounced Right Off It, Hit and Run, Ram, Don't Stop!, Repairs, Surprise!, Booby-Trapped, Return to Sender, as well as all the Artillery and Aviation cards.

Set aside the 88 mm Flak 18 card.

Deploy the units in their respective deployment zones. The American player cannot deploy vehicles in zone B.

The German player has initiative, and thus deploys first.
Place the corresponding marker on space 1 of the turn counter.

Each player draws 4 cards.

4- PLAYING THE GAME

This game lasts 6 turns.
The American player must have taken control of at least two of the three objectives along the road at the end of turn 6 (see p2 of the scenario book of the base game).

Turn 4: At the end of the Supply phase, the German player takes the 188 mm Flak 18 card into his hand (along with his other cards). The German antitank cannon will fire on the following turn.

The game ends at the end of turn 6.

5- END OF THE GAME AND VICTORY

American Victory: The American player wins the game if he controls the road (2 of the 3 objectives) at the end of turn 6.

CARENTAN:
In Scenario 3, the German player will not get any artillery support.

German victory: The German player wins the game if the American player can't make it happen.

CARENTAN:
In Scenario 3, the German player can get artillery support in turns 4 and 6.

SCENARIO 3 - BRIEFING

COLE'S CHARGE, JUNE 11

While taking control of the road from Isigny, Lieutenant Colonel Robert G. Cole remarks that Carentan's surroundings are always locked by a strategic point of resistance. An unknown number of German paratroopers are entrenched in a farm, preventing a direct approach on the town. You must remove them from this position. A bayonet charge seems like the only option. Cole leads his men to death or glory!

3- PREPARATION

Without looking at them, place 2 Bonus tactic markers.

Remove the following cards from the American deck: Weak Point, Precision, Panzerfaust, Bogged Down, Hit and Run, Ram, Don't Stop!, Repairs, and all the Artillery and Aviation cards.

Remove the following cards from the German deck: Weak Point, Bogged Down, It Bounced Right Off It, Precision, Hit and Run, Ram, Don't Stop!, Repairs, and all the Artillery and Aviation cards.

Take the Nebelwerfer card from the German deck, and set it aside.

Deploy the units in their respective deployment zones.

The American player has initiative, and thus deploys first. Place the corresponding marker on space 1 of the turn counter.

The American player cannot deploy units in the Reinforcements zone.

Each player draws 4 cards.

4- PLAYING THE GAME

This game lasts 7 turns.

The American player must control the house before the end of turn 7.

Turn 2: At the end of the Supply Phase, deploy the American reinforcements in the Reinforcements zone, one unit per space.
These units cannot act until the following turn. Using the Scout special ability is not allowed.

CARENTAN:

Turns 4 and 6: At the end of the Supply Phase, the German player can place an artillery blast pattern on the terrain. He rolls the die for dispersion. Use the values on the Nebelwerfer card to resolve the damage.

The game ends at the end of turn 7 or as soon as the American player controls the objective.

5- END OF THE GAME AND VICTORY

American victory: The American player wins the game if he controls the house before the end of turn 7.

CARENTAN:

In Scenario 4, the German player cannot use deployment zone B.

German victory: The German player wins the game if the American player does not control the house at the end of turn 7.

CARENTAN :

In Scenario 4, the German player can use deployment zone B.

LT COLONEL ROBERT COLE

Private Johnson had never been considered particularly lucky. He was not very superstitious. At least, no more than most paratroopers. But that was before. Before all these signs. Like, for example, when his stick was swapped with the one from Sergeant Fitzpatrick's squad, all because Fitzpatrick knew the pilot, who it seems was good luck... Their Skytrain was shot down by Flak before they even had time to open the door so they could blow those guys away.

And then there was that perfect jump, not a single scratch, nothing lost along the way.

And that mine: While marching along, he ripped the wire right out without triggering it.

The assault on the fortified post on the way off Utah Beach, when the kraut's MG 34 had jammed at the exact moment in which Johnson noticed that the gunner had spotted him trying to charge him... That scared the crap out of him! What if he'd been that poor bastard?

He also remembered that mortar shell at his feet that hadn't exploded, and the time he was hit, but the bullet was stopped clean by the stock of his M1...

And then when he turned his back to Lieutenant Idol, head of Able Company, who handed him his helmet that hed lost without knowing why. The helmet had been pierced right through by a bullet that somehow hadn't touched his head! Just as Johnson was starting to tell himself how lucky he was, his luck ran out. There he was, with his nose in the mud, with his buddies in Company A of the 1st / 502nd of the 101st, pinned down by heavy fire from those boche bastards entrenched in this frigging Ingouf farm. Seriously, that was it was called!

And then the smoke shells started to fall on the farm and its defenders, drowning them in the fog. Then he saw... He saw Lt. Colonel Cole get up, Colt .45 in one hand and whistle in the other. He heard him give the order to fix bayonets, he heard the whistle and Cole yelling, "Chaaaaarge!"

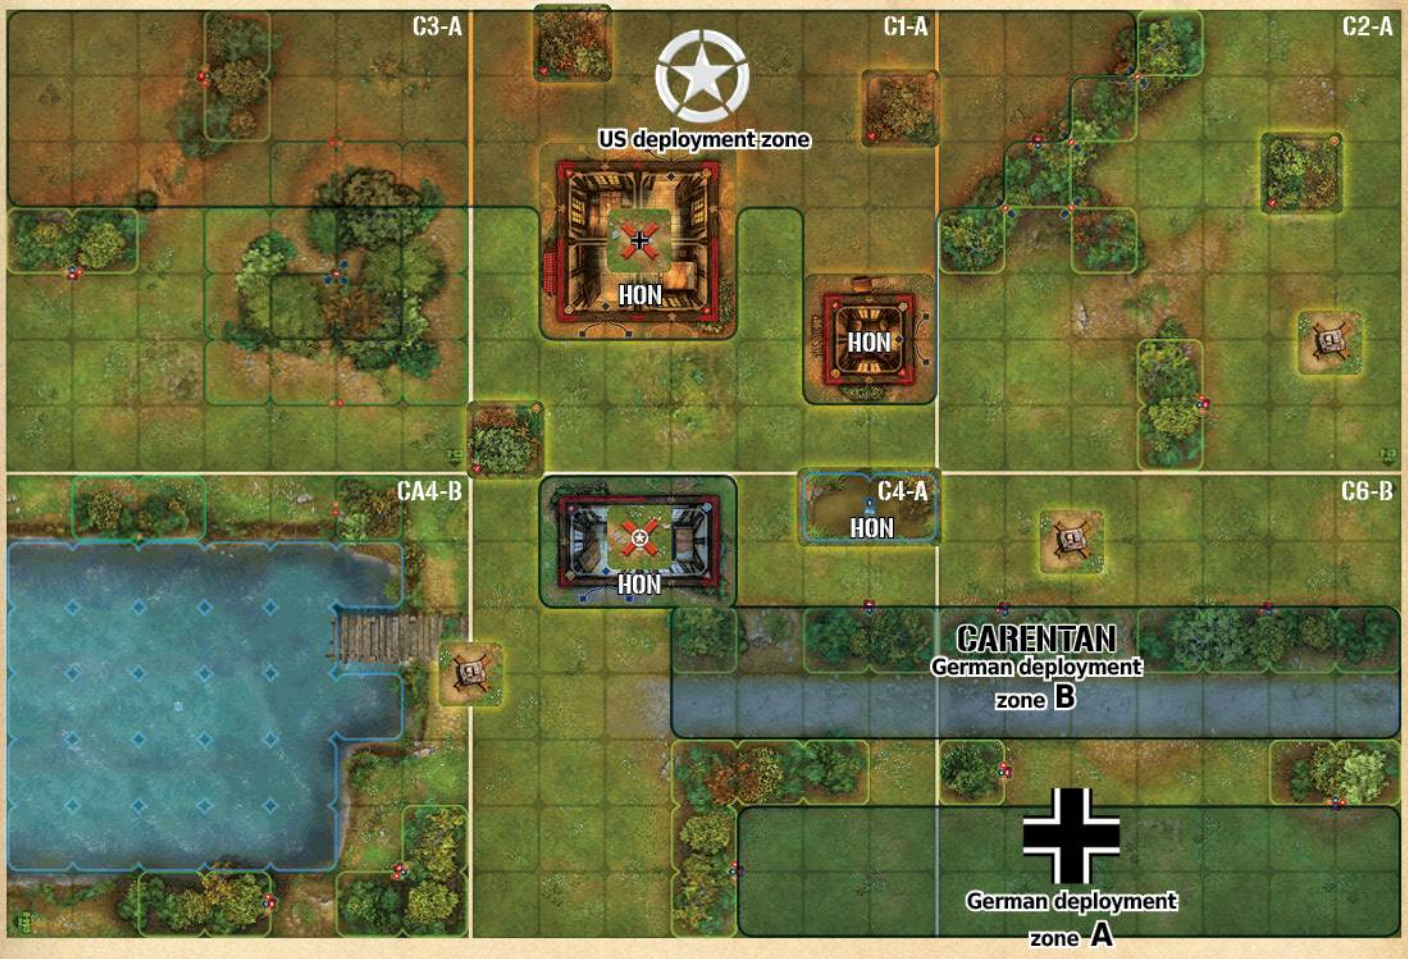

He told himself that this, this would be the time.

SCENARIO 4 - BRIEFING

TRUCE, JUNE 11

General McAuliffe, who directs operations for the 101st has sent Major Douglas T. Davidson to request a truce to evacuate the wounded. He gave his word that no shots would be fired until the Major returned behind their lines. The Germans took the opportunity to take up positions for a counterattack. They must push back; otherwise the right flank cannot start its turning maneuver.

3- PREPARATION

Without looking at them, place 3 Bonus tactic markers.

Remove the Artillery and Aviation card from both decks, and the cards Precision and BoobyTrapped from the German deck.
Set aside the M101 Howitzer artillery card.

Deploy the units in their respective deployment zones.

The US player has initiative, and thus deploys first.
Place the corresponding marker on space 1 of the turn counter.

CARENTAN :
The availability of German deployment zone B depends on the outcome of the previous scenario.

Each player draws 4 cards.

4- PLAYING THE GAME

This game lasts 8 turns.

The German player must control the house before the end of turn 8.

END The game ends at the end of turn 8 or as soon as the German player controls the house or its ruins.

If the American player controls his principal objective at the end of any Supply Phase, he can add the M 101 Howitzer artillery card to his hand.
He can only do this once per game.

5- END OF THE GAME AND VICTORY

German victory: The German player wins the game if he controls the house before the end of turn 8.

CARENTAN :
In Scenario 6, the American player cannot use deployment zone B and does not place Bonus tactic B.

American victory: The American player wins the game if the German player does not fulfill his victory conditions.

CARENTAN :
In Scenario 6, the American player can use deployment zone B and places Bonus tactic B.

SCENARIO 5 - BRIEFING

CANAL DE VIRE-ET-TAUTE, JUNE 11

An American force has skirted Carentan in order to try an approach on the left flank. The goal is to block the exits from the town to the East, and to secure the rail bridge and the road from Isigny. They absolutely must anchor a position in order to enable opening a third front that would close the pincher that encircles Carentan, and permit a final assault with a lower cost in human lives.

3- PREPARATION

Without looking at them, place 3 Bonus tactic markers.

Remove the following cards from the American deck: Weak Point, Panzerfaust, Bogged Down, Don't Stop!, Surprise!, and all the Artillery and Aviation cards.

Remove the following cards from the German deck: It Bounced Right Off It, Hit and Run, Ram, Don't Stop!, Repairs, and all the Artillery and Aviation cards.

The American player has initiative, and thus goes first.

4- PLAYING THE GAME

This game lasts 8 turns.

In order to win the battle, the American player must control either:

two of the three secondary objectives (see p2 of the scenario book from the base game)

OR

the primary objective

before the end of turn 8.

END The game ends at the end of turn 8 or as soon as the American player controls this part of the town.

If the German player controls his primary objective at the end of a Supply Phase, move the endofgame marker one space higher on the turn counter. This event cannot take place in the first turn, but can happen several times per game. END

5- END OF THE GAME AND VICTORY

American victory: The American player wins the game if he controls the terrain before the end of turn 8.

CARENTAN :

In Scenario 6, the American player can use deployment zone C and place bonus tactic C.

German victory: The German player wins the game if the American player does not fulfill his victory conditions.

CARENTAN :

In Scenario 6, the American player cannot use deployment zone C and cannot place bonus tactic C.

SCENARIO 6 - BRIEFING

FINAL ASSAULT, JUNE 12

It's time... This town must fall! The American troops launch an assault on the Carentan fortress. The first wave does not yet know if it will benefit from the axes opened by the two previous attacks.
The moment of truth approaches, and the Lions of Carentan are ready!

2- RECRUITMENT OF THE ARMIES

The US paratroopers recruitment tile (101st Inf. Div. 506th Inf. Reg. 2nd Bat.) and its linked recruitment options can be replaced with content belonging to the scenario pack Sainte-Mère-Eglise, respecting the army point value (260 points).

3- PREPARATION

Without looking at them, place 2 Bonus tactic markers.

CARENTAN:

Place 1 additional bonus tactic for each deployment zone liberated through the victory conditions of Scenarios 4 and 5 (Bonus B and Bonus C).

Remove the Artillery and Aviation card from both decks.

The German player has initiative, and thus deploys first. Place the corresponding marker on space 1of the turn counter.

Deploy the units in their respective deployment zones.

CARENTAN:

Depending on the result of Scenarios 4 and 5, the American player can distribute his units however he wishes between deployment zone A, and zones B and C. Also place the corresponding bonus tactics (B and C).

Each player draws 4 cards.

4- PLAYING THE GAME

This game lasts 8 turns.

In order to win the battle, the American player must control the following before the end of turn 8:

2 of the four secondary objectives
(see p2 of the scenario book from the base game)

and

the primary objective;

OU

All 4 secondary objectives.
(see p2 of the scenario book from the base game).

The game ends at the end of turn 8.
or as soon as the American player controls the town.

5- END OF THE GAME AND VICTORY

American victory: If the American player succeeds at his mission, he wins the game and the campaign.

German victory: If the American player fails at his mission, the German player wins the game and the campaign.

UN P'TIT CANON ? (untranslating french joke.. Sorry.)

Excerpt from Chapter 6 of Band of Brothers, by Stephen E. Ambrose:
Another problem emerged, one that was to plague the airborne forces throughout the next year. Every liberated village in France, and later in Belgium, Holland, Germany, and Austria, was full of wine, cognac, brandy, and other fine liquor, of a quality and in a quantity quite unknown to the average enlisted man. Pvt. Shifty Powers and a friend found a wine shop in St.Côme du Mont. They broke in and began sampling the bottles, "to find the kind we liked." They took a bottle each and went out back to drink in peace. "Every once in a while there's a sniper trying to shoot us, and he's trying to ricochet one in on us, and we would hear that bullet hit and ricochet around, we kind of enjoyed that."
