INVASION BEGINS!

SPECIAL DDAY 70TH ANNIVERSARY

6 JUIN 1944, 4H15

Somewhere on a landing craft in the middle of the Channel, rough sea, fresh wind.

At ease, ladies!
Kowalski, just go ahead and puke, you're lookin' green.

The rest of you, hold on to your lunches and listen up! In an hour, this floating iron piece of crap will be swimming distance from the promised land. You been goin' through Hell for months, waiting for this day! Well, here we are! That smoke bank over there is France! I won't lie to you, when I say Promised Land, it's a figure of speech, and since I ain't what Kowalski would call an intellectual, I won't sugar coat it. Most of you kids down in this hold crapping your pants won't ever see Paris on anything but a fucking postcard, since you'll be killed as soon as you hit the beach.

Don't fool yourself with the sweet stories told by HQ about the free world and all! The truth is that the guys on the other side aren't gonna be holding the door for you. They're nasty, they have their back to the wall, they're following Der Fuhrer, and they still believe his bullshit about a Thousand-year Reich. They're playing ball on their home field, and they've been here for 4 years, waiting for us. Hell, some of their fathers fought your fathers on the same damn land in the last war!

Some of you fought them in Africa, in Sicily, in Italy; you're the ones that know what I'm talking about. For the rest of you, make no mistake, sweetie-pies, I'm not trying to scare the shit out of you, I'm only trying to get this into your thick fucking skulls: even if the enemy deserves to die, he's still a battle-hardened soldier, seasoned by 5 years of uninterrupted war. He's tough, he's smart, and he can't be fooled. Just because we're the good guys doesn't mean we can't lose, so don't be stupid.
Make me proud! You're here to kill the enemy, so fucking kill the enemy! Blow them to Hell, and piss on their corpses!
It's D- day…NOW!
Permission to puke granted.

ANCHORS AWEIGH

I was told. I didn't listen. Now I'm standing on this fucking barge and the coast of Normandie is getting closer far too quickly for my taste. Me, the guy who gets sea-sick. Me, the one that can't fucking swim. It's impossible to disembark in these conditions. What are we gonna look like with our crumpled, soaking-wet uniforms? Shipwrecked dirty faces ain't gunna score with the ladies in the bars of Caen. We might as well admit we'll have to sleep in those damn racks again, and that there's gonna be some frantic wanking in the berthing. Me, the guy that can't swim….

HEINRICH VON KAMPTZ

Sought for war crimes, crimes against humanity (and numerous other crimes too many to list)

Hauptstürmfuhrer Von Kampftz, aka The Aryan Plague, is being sought by Allied Military Justice to answer for the following counts of indictment: massacre of prisoners of war, plundering, torture, dubious medical experimentation, taking civilian hostages, massacre of civilian hostages, cruelty to animals, unspeakable and unnatural perversions, aggravated Nazism and having a face like a pig's bottom. All Allied soldiers should do everything in their power to capture this individual, alive if possible, dead is fine as well.
Beware, this individual is extremely dangerous and generally protected by a horde of fanatic infantrymen and armored vehicles! Do not try to apprehend him by yourself! If you locate Hauptstürmfuhrer Von Kampftz, report immediately to High Command for top priority on artillery missions, air support, and all available reinforcements.
Good luck.

NO MERCY FOR THE BRAVE! (part.1)

In the extreme east of Utah Beach, a small force of the fourth infantry division get the order to land in a lightly defended sector and rush to the crossroads of La Maule in order to anchor an outpost. From there, an offensive will be launched towards the towns behind the enemy lines. But an SS officer with a terrible reputation has installed his quarters there. Heinrich Von Kampftz is eating his breakfast when the first shells start falling on the German defenses.

In order to play this scenario, you need the Heroes of Normandie core box, the following expansions SS Panzergrenadiere and US Rangers and the Scenarios Pack D-Day (mandatory). If you don't have this expansions, you can replace the units, as long as they cost the same amount of army points.

Battlefield and Deployment

Pixel Vengeur

The German player deploys the group A units in the déployment zone A.
Heinrich Von Kampftz has to be placed in the house.
Group B units are deployed in the zones B, C and D.

The American player places the following landing craft as indicated in the plan opposite: Small 1–2, Large 3, Large 5–6 and small 4.
He deploys the units of his choice in three of these.
The other units will enter the game in each Supply phase.

Without looking at them, place 5 Bonus tactics markers on the battlefield.

Remove these Action cards:
Weak Point, Panzerfaust, Sneaky Shot, Precision and all the Artillery and Aviation cards

Remove these Action cards:
RAM, Repair and all the Artillery and Aviation cards

Set aside the american Aviation cards, shuffle them and place them close to the turn counter..

The German player deploys his troops first.

The American player has initiative; place the corresponding marker on Turn 1.

Each player draws 4 cards.

Victory Conditions and Particular Information:

This game lasts 8 turns.

The goal for the American player is to control the main objective before the end of turn 8. Exceptionally, for this scenario, american vehicles are able to control the main objective. Game ends if this condition is fulfilled.

If, at the end of any Supply phase, an american unit is beyond the barbed wires line (red line), the second wave can enter the battle at the next turn Supply phase.
American units enter the game by the landing craft.
German units arrive by the road spotted with a red arrow.

If no american unit has crossed the barbed wires line before the end of Turn 3, it's a German victory.

Turn 2 and 5

At the end of turn's Supply phase, the American player draws an Aviation card.
This card does not count in the maximum of cards he may have in hand.

If the American player takes control of the secondary objective, the initiative marker is not moved one turn but will remain on the current turn. It will nevertheless be flipped to change the initiative order.

American Victory: The American player wins the game if he controls the main objective before the end of Turn 8.
It's a major victory if the American players eliminates Heinrich Von Kampftz (we assume that he escapes).

German Victory: The German player wins the game if the American player cannot control the main objective by the end of Turn 8.
It's a major victory if the americans don't cross the barbed wires line before Turn 4.

HEROES OF NORMANDIE

NO MERCY FOR THE BRAVE! (part.2)

After the German defeat, the fourth infantry division rushes to provide support to airborne troops fighting around Sainte Mère église. A small unit is left behind to secure the crossroads of La Maule. But Von Kamptz wants his revenge! Supported by a section of his most loyal SS, he returns to the scene of the confrontation with the firm intention of killing all Americans he meets along the way!

Composition of the Armies

In order to play this scenario, you need the Heroes of Normandie core box, the expansion SS Panzergrenadiere. If you don't have this expansion, you can replace the units, as long as they cost the same amount of army points.

Battlefield and Deployment

Each player deploys his units in his respective deployment zone.
The American sets aside the Sherman tank.

Without looking at them, place 2 Bonus tactics markers on the battlefield.

Remove the following cards from both decks: Precision, Surprise and all the Artillery and Aviation cards.

The American player deploys his troops first.

The German player has initiative; place the corresponding marker on Turn 1.

Each player draws 4 cards.

Victory Conditions and Particular Information:
This game lasts 6 turns.

The goal for the German player is to control the two objectives before the end of Turn 5.

Turn 2
At the start of the turn's Supply phase, the American player brings the Sherman tank into play. The tank enters the board by the road spotted with a red arrow.

American Victory: The American player wins the game if he controls one of the objectives at the end of Turn 5.
It's a major victory if the American players controls the two objectives.

German Victory: The German player wins the game if he controls the two objectives by the end of Turn 5.
It's a major victory if he eliminates every American units.
