Powers: Captain Justice has a super strength. He can lift more than 500 tons without any efforts. His body is almost bullet proof and blades cannot hurt him. He can regenerate 5 times faster than a regular human being.

Son of a lame boxer and an alcoolic call girl, John Rayburn leaves school early to start a gang that becomes famous in Brooklyn for its regular use of violence.

CAPTAIN'S FATHER HAD DEPTS

Forced to pay for his father's depts, own by a local mobster, John decided to eliminate this threat. Failing into his murder attempt, he tries to run away from New York before being betrayed by his former partners.
Pursued by the mafia , John takes refuge in an abandoned factory. Surrounded , he falls into a tank filled with a toxic product left abandoned . But far from making it disappear, the product, as the dragon's blood for Siegfried, transforms John into a super-man. It gets rid of the mobsters and its former partners before leaving for Chicago.

He then multiplies burglary, more spectacular each time, and draw the FBI attention, in particular agents specializing in weird and unusual cases.

Hunted, John crosses the United States to California, where he thinks he can hide by a cousin but falls into a trap set by the FBI. Facing another super-man, John loses and is sent in a secret sate prison.
Secretly detained, drugged and studied by scientists. John disappears for three years.

JOHN RAYBURN WAS A DRUG ADDICT

In 1940, John is finally set free. At war against Nazi Germany and Japan, the United States is trying to form a superhero team to counter the enemy advanced. In exchange for a new life, John agreed to join this group under the name of Captain Justice.

SUPER POWERS

Super powers are new recruitment options of a special kind.
This options only benefit to Characters.
A Character is the main token of a rectuitment tile (and not of an option). It can be a hero or the recruitment tile officer (yellow outline).

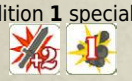

When a super hero takes a hit,he can flip an super power option instead of suffering the damages.

If the scenario takes Victory points into account, the oppponent scores the amount of point listed on the super power tile back.

Adamantium claws
This super power gives you the Assault +2 (replacement) and Demolition 1 special abilities.

Aryan armor
This super power gives you the Charge special ability and a +2 defense bonus.

Jump
This super power gives you the Jump special ability

Mutation
This super power gives you the Assault +2 (replacement) and Terrifying special ability.

Patriot Shield
The shield gives a a +2 defense bonus As he stays on its option tile.
During an activation (with an Order), Captain Justice can throw his shield to attack opponent units.

Once thrown, the shield can perform an assault action. In addition to its own combat values, the shield has the Assault +2 and Brutal assault special abilities.

He's got 6 movement points and the flying special move.

The shield moves on the interspaces.

If all of its movement points have been spent and the shield is not back on the Captain's space, let it on the ground on its "ground" side. Only Captain Justice can take it back by crossing one of the shield adjacene spaces. He doesn't need to stop to pick it up.

Regeneration
In the beginning of the Supply phase, if the super hero suffered a hit, roll the dice.

On a result of 5 or 6, you can flip a super power tile on its "not exhausted" side or flip the super hero token on his unhurt side.

Sonic Pistol
Instead of performing a shoot action, you can use the Sonic pistol.
Place 2 Suppressed tokens on a unit situated at 3 spaces or less from the super hero.
You don't need to have a LoS on your target.

Super senses
Your super hero can spot units ambushed in terrain elements at a 7 spaces range.

Super strentgh
This super power gives you the Assault +4 (replacement) and perforated special abilities.

Daughter of a english lord, Claire was harshly educated by his father who wanted a boy as his heir and who didn't really forgive her mother's dead during her birth. First woman to enter the Royal Navy, she makes a brillant career like every men of her family. Claire abandons everything to lead the family steelworks after her father died in a tragic accident.

LORD HASHLEY DIES IN A TRAGIC ACCIDENT

She discovers then that the company is about to fall into the hands of unscrupulous businessmen and that her father has been killed.
On the way to the police station, she's involved in a car crash. Unable to stop her vehicle whose brakes were sabotaged , she falls from a cliff and hits the sea. Blocked inside the car, she sinks slowly when the lightning hits the car. Electrocuted but mysteriously still alive, Claire powers herself up like a battery and blows away the door to escape the sinking car.
With her new powers, Claire makes justice for her own. Dressed as a vigilante, she scared the men who tried to murder her and brings them to the justice.
She's still managing the company when the war starts.

SHE FIGHTS THE LUFTWAFFE

With the name of Lady Britain, she decides to serve the crown and puts her power into the battle to protect england from the Nazis bombings.
As she fights the Luftwaffe, her factory is destroyed and many men die.
The army offers her to join a super heroes team for a special operation. Swearing to avenge her workers who died in the bombing, she says yes.

Electric blast
Once per game, during any Activation phase, Lady Britain, instead of performing a Shoot or a Move action, can unleash a powerfull electric blast.

Place the token number 1 on an oponent unit situated at 6 spaces or less from the beautifull fighter, the token number 2 on another unit situated at 4 spaces or less from the first token and the token number 3 at 2 spaces or less from the second token. Resolve the three attacks.

An obscured or a clear line of sight between Lady Britain and between each token is needed.

CAPACITÉS SPÉCIALES

Assault (Brutal)
The unit can begin an assault on all opposing units that it covers at least partially at the end of its movement.
The value indicated in the symbol is used in the place of the value of the Assault Special Ability.
Assaults are resolved one after the other in the order chosen by the attacker.
In case of a victory, the attacked unit must retreat as described the Assault rules.
As soon as an assault is lost by the unit, its activation is ended and the unit returns to the space(s) it occupied before the assault.
The unit cannot attack the same enemy multiple times.

Charge
When this unit initiates an Assault, it has the option to make a free attack first.
Move the unit like in a regular Assault, then resolve the free attack using the firing rules. The target can benefit from any terrain defence bonus. If the target survives, resolve the Assault.

Double activation
This unit can receive 2 Order tokens and the acts two times in a round.

Initiative
A unit with this special ability always have the initiative when activated with an Order. In case of two units with the Initiative special ability, the player with the initiative plays first.

Lycanthropy
This unit can flip its token one time per movement. Once flipped, the unit cannot come back to its previous status.

Life Point
Certain units have Life Points that can be discarded to cancel a hit.
If the result of the shot creates a double loss (see Firing p.8), you must discard 2 Life Point markers. If the unit does not have enough Life Point markers, it suffers one hit per missing marker.

Jump
The unit with this Special Ability is able to jump over terrain elements. Move it as usual and ignore any obstacles.
The unit cannot stop on an element normally forbidden to it.
The unit can enter a dominant position with the Surprise action card or the Urban Fighter Special Ability.

Special Movement (Flying)
The unit with this Special Ability can jump above terrain overlays. Move it as if there were no obstacles.
It cannot stop on top of an element that is normally prohibited.
It can enter in a dominant position (present in expansions) with a Surprise card or the Urban Fighter Special Ability.

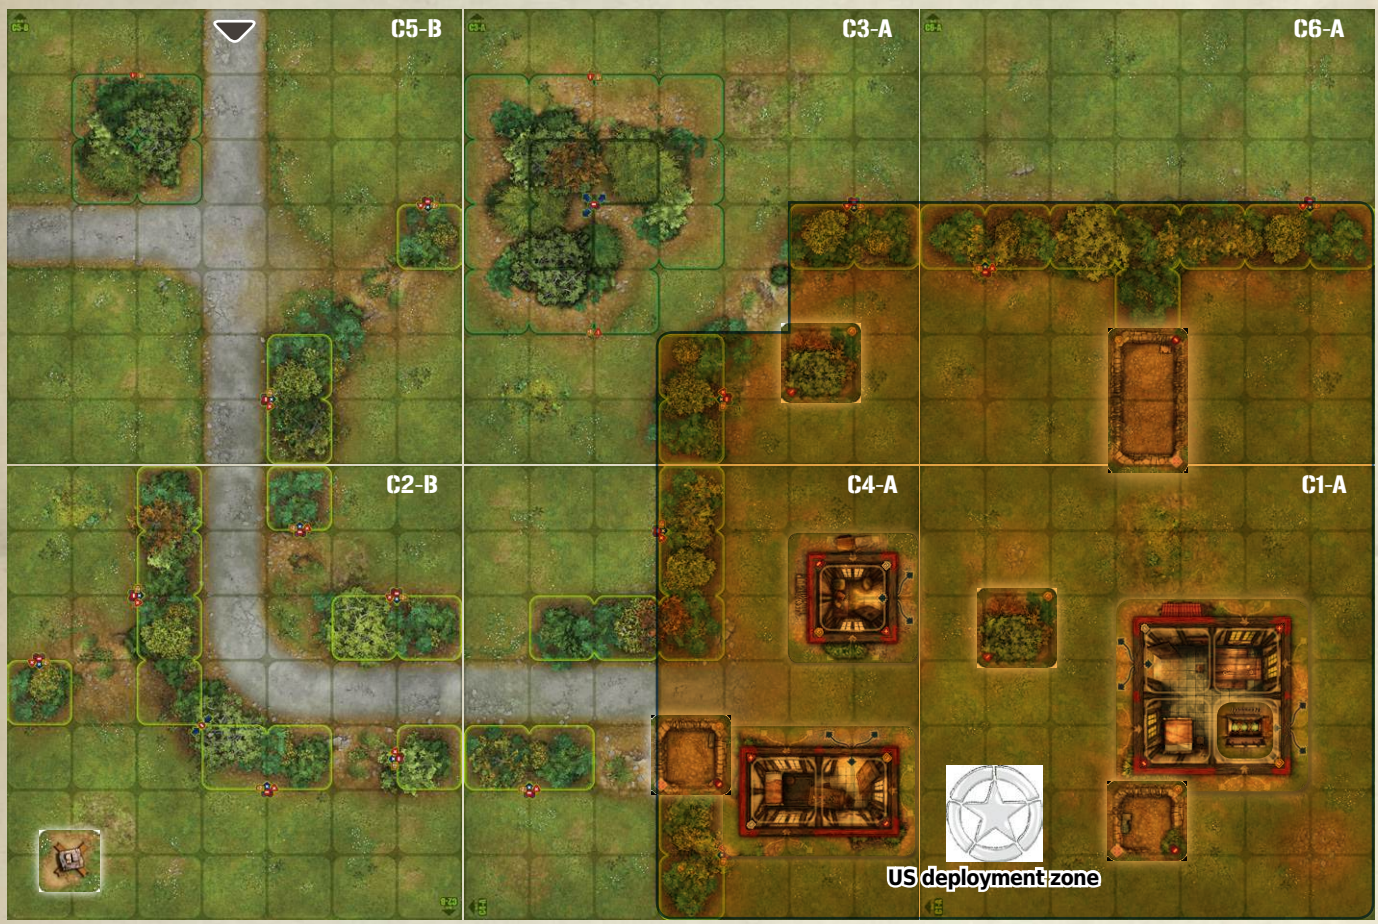

TOP SECRET

FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT IN FRANCE

SCENARIO #1 BRIEFING

Americans are in possession of a terrible source of power, the Terranyte they found in a German secret base. They hid in a remote farmhouse in the Ardennes waiting to repatriate the Terranyte to the United States in order to study it. But the spies of the Reich did a good job. A sinister convoy is on its way to the place called " la Méridienne " where soldiers of the 4th Infantry Division keeps the terrible radioactive materials.

THE CONVOY OF DOOM

FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT IN FRANCE — SCENARIO #2 BRIEFING

The convoy speeds up to the Siegfried line. The Terranyte will soon enter the Reich. Nazis scientists are waiting for it with eagerness to create new secret weapons that will change the course of the war. But, fortunately for the free world, Captain Justice and Lady Britain are setting an ambush to the Alpha section. The titans are ready to battle!

1-BATTLEFIELD AND DEPLOYMENT

2- ARMY RECRUITMENT

CAMPAIGN : If the German player lost the previous scenario, he starts the game with only one truck. The Terranyte is in it.

3- PREPARATION

Remove the following cards from the US deck: Precision, RAM, It bounces right of it, Réparation, Weak point, Hit and Run, Don't stop and every Artillery and Aviation cards.

Remove the following cards from the German deck: Precision, RAM, Weak point, Repairs, Booby trap and every Artillery and Aviation cards.

The German player places one crate in each truck, face down. Each crate worths 4 transport points.

The American player makes 4 piles with his units and place them near the battlefield. He places a damage token on each of them, side 6 up. The number on the other side corresponds to a deployment zone.

When activating a unit from one of his piles, the player must deploy all of the units of this pile in the deployment zone corresponding to the damage token number (1, 2, 3-4 or 5).

When a German unit enters a US deployment zone, all the units from the pile with the corresponding damage token must be deploy in the zone.

The German convoy enters the battlefield by one of the two spaces marked with a grey arrow, during the Activation phase with an Order or the Supply phase without an Order.
