HEROES IN GOLD

" NO MATTER IF WE SEND POSITIVE WAVES UP TO THE MOON! THIS ENGINE IS TOAST!"

Kelly, Oddball and the others

You probably felt it right from the start. We drew our main inspiration from the splendid movie "Kelly's Heroes" (1970). Somewhat linked to the movie title, the game was named Heroes of Normandie.

Kelly's band of misfits motivated our Hollywoodian, out of the ordinary, angle of approach towards this game. This Kickstarter exclusive is our tribute to these characters.

Here's a little recap of the movie :

It's 1944 in France, close to the city of Nancy. Kelly (Clint Eastwood), a demoted lieutenant, has captured a Colonel of the German intelligence service.

Right before he gets killed, the plastered prisoner tells a tale of 14 000 gold bars, neatly stacked in a bank vault, 40 kilometres away, at Clermont-en-Argonne, well into German lines.

Kelly wants that gold, so he musters the rest of the platoon, a bunch of stereotypical G.I.'s, able men but sick and tired of the war. He even convinces the very skeptical Sergeant "Big Joe" (Telly Savalas), to join. Such a dangerous operation necessitates the aid of several more, whilst others jump on the bandwagon and eagerly invite themselves along. Enter characters like the anachronical pre-hippie Sgt. Oddball (Donald Sutherland) who commands a Bohemian looking tank platoon, as well as supply NCO and cunning hustler "Crapgame", (Don [illegible] realise their own army will an equal amount of problems to what the Germans have After an allied fighter plane hem for an enemy unit and vehicles to pieces, they are oceed on foot.

t (Carroll O'Connor), listens in r radio messages. Erroneously elieving some of his units have launched a most audacious piercing attack on their own initiative, he rushes to the frontline. g an opportunistic fanatic he st exploit the situation to gain rsonal glory.

Kelly's men must rush towards Clermont-en-Argonne to arrive well before the rest of their army. They find the town occupied by three formidable Tiger tanks with infantry support. They move in, then overwhelm the surprised defenders.

r, although damaged, the one surviving Tiger tank remains firmly positioned, right in front of the bank, blocking the way to the gold. Kelly negociates with the tank commander (Karl-Otto Alberty), who, for a share of the bounty, agrees to fire upon the bank doors. Once the path is cleared, all rush in to claim the loot. The townfolk, thinking themselves liberated, start to celebrate and become even more excited as the rest of the army arrives, led by General Colt. He is looking for the brave men who triggered the attack and now definitely deserve a medal.

The artwork on the original movie poster was made by Jack Davis, a founding member of MAD magazine (created by Harvey Kurtzman in 1952).

A bit of leftover 60's anarchy and joy mixed with the World War II theme.

A magnificent cast, an excellent director (Brian G. Hutton), a splendid script and superb dialogues all culminated in one movie. How could one resist such an amount of talent?

What more could we wish for?

SPECIAL ABILITIES

Ace Driver
If the vehicle piloted by an ace driver has the Move and Fire special ability, reduce the penalty by 1.
This special ability can be combined with the character trait Ace driver to reduce the Move and Fire penalty by 2.

Crew
In order to activate this special ability, the unit must end its move in a heavy or light vehicle.
Turn the counter over and leave it on the vehicle.
The unit adds its special abilities to those of the vehicle.
The unit does not count against the carrying capacity of the vehicle and vehicles that do not have this special ability can only carry one Crew unit.
The unit cannot be targeted by a Firing action as long as it is inside the vehicle.
In order to exit the vehicle, it absolutely must start its Movement action by turning over onto its Inactive side.
If its vehicle is Destroyed, place the unit Inactive side up in a square adjacent to the wreck. Put a Suppressed marker on it. This is a Forced move.

Loudspeakers
The player who has this unit may play music during the game. If two units both have this special ability, the player that has the Initiative imposes his choice in music.

Mechanic
The Mechanic can repair Damage on a heavy vehicle. In order to remove a Damage marker, the Mechanic must be adjacent to the heavy vehicle.
In the Activation or Supply phase, the Mechanic can remove any one Damage marker instead of taking a Firing action or a Movement action.
With the Heroic feat card or using the Heroic character trait (or any other rule enabling a unit to act twice), it can move and repair a heavy vehicle in the same turn.
You can not repair more than one Damage per turn.

Paint Shell Rounds
When this vehicle takes a Firing action with its Primary weapon and the dice roll is 1, the crew made a mistake and loaded a paint shell. No Damage is dealt but you put 2 Suppressed markers on the target.
If an APC or a HE Shell is fired and the dice roll is 1, the marker is not expended.

Sniper (complément)
If a character has a sniper symbol on their recruitment tile, use the sniper damage table printed on the tile instead of the one in the rulebook.

Tank barrage order
This special ability works just as Barrage Order, but only applies to heavy vehicles of any name. The chosen heavy vehicles may only fire one of their weapons.

SCENARIO 1 - BRIEFING

IT'S STRAIGHT AHEAD!

This is it, the convoy is on the move. The first obstacle is tiny. We only need to pass a village occupied by Germans. Nothing too bad... All in all...

1- BATTLEFIELD AND DEPLOYMENT

The expansion Sainte-Mère-Eglise is required to play this scenario.

2- COMPOSITION OF THE ARMIES

3- SETUP

Remove, from both decks : all Artillery and Aviation, Don't stop, Precision, Ram, Repairs, Weak point, from German deck : Hit and run, It bounced right of it.

The German player deploys first in the appropriate deployment zone.

The Americans enter through the squares marked with a green arrow, in the Activation Phase with an order or during the Supply Phase.
The US player doesn't have to send in all troops on the first turn.

The US player has initiative.
Place the US marker on turn 1.

Each player draws 4 cards.

4- PARTICULAR INFORMATION

The game is played in 6 turns.
Dark night rules apply.
The American player must succeed in exiting at least two vehicles (Greyhound, halftrack, or jeep) through the square marked with a red arrow.
For this scenario, the wrecks are considered as difficult passages. Vehicules can pass over them but must stop.

Turns 1, 3 and 5

At the end of the Activation Phase, the player with initiative places a blue blast pattern anywhere on the map and rolls the die to check for dispersal.

5- VICTORY CONDITIONS

US victory : The US player wins if at least 2 vehicles exit the board by the end of turn 6.
Major US victory if 3 or more vehicles exit the board.

German victory : The German player wins if none of the American vehicles exit the board before the end of turn 6.

CAMPAIGN Any eliminated characters will be present in the next scenario if they are listed in the Composition of the armies.

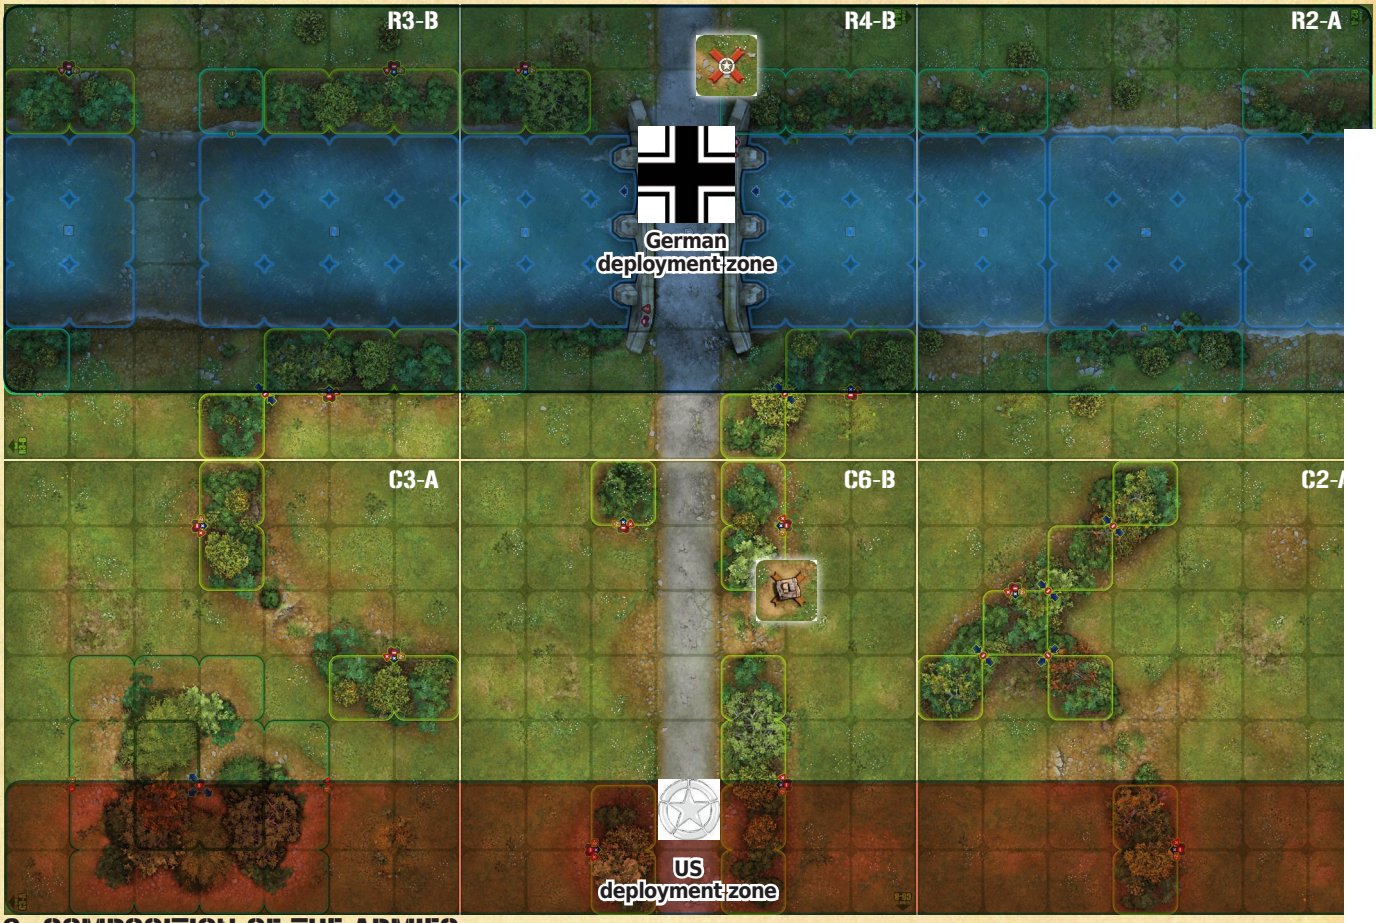

SCENARIO 2 - BRIEFING

POSITIVE WAVES ON A MINOR BRIDGE

Aided by a regimental band found resting behind the lines, Oddball tries to cross the river in order to join Kelly (Clint).
Across the river, the Germans are playing quite a different tune

1- BATTLEFIELD AND DEPLOYMENT

Le River set et l'US army box sont nécessaires pour jouer ce scénario.

2- COMPOSITION OF THE ARMIES

3- SETUP

Choose 1 bonus tactic at random and place it on the map.

Remove from German deck : all Artillery and Aviation, Booby trapped, Don't stop, Hit and run, It bounced right of it, Precision, Ram, Repairs, Surprise.

Both sides deploy in their appropriate deployment zones.

The German player deploys first.

4- PARTICULAR INFORMATION

The game is played in 6 turns.

The American player must control the main objective before the end of turn 6.

The game ends as soon as the American player controls the objective or at the end of turn 6.

5- VICTORY CONDITIONS

US victory : The US player wins if he controls the main objective before the end of turn 6.

SCENARIO 3 - BRIEFING

ARE YOU EFFICIENT IN LAYING OUT A MINE FIELD...

After their vehicles were destroyed by an American airplane, Kelly and his gang have walked straight into a minefield. Whilst most of the men managed to get themselves out of there unscathed some are still stuck in the field. For now they can't be helped as the arrival of a German convoy is a more urgent affair.

Battleground set #1 and the mines of gazette #1 are required to play this scenario. Mines and rules for them can also be downloaded from the DPG website.

1- BATTLEFIELD AND DEPLOYMENT

2- COMPOSITION OF THE ARMIES

3- SETUP

Choose 2 bonus tactics at random and place them on the map.

Remove, from both decks : all Artillery and Aviation, Booby trapped, Precision, Ram, Repairs, Surprise, from American deck : Don't stop, Hit and run, It bounced right of it.

The German player deploys ALL units in the appropriate deployment zone.
Infantry units can be placed inside vehicles.

The American player deploys in the appropriate deployment zone.
The Support Group is placed in the wheatfield on BS-6B as shown on the map.

The American player has initiative.
Place the US marker on turn 1.

Each player draws 4 cards.

4- PARTICULAR INFORMATION

The game is played in 6 turns.

The goal of the German player is to eliminate the Support Group in the field and as many American units as possible before the end of turn 6.
The goal of the American player is to eliminate at least one more unit than the German player.

5- VICTORY CONDITIONS

German victory : The German player wins if the Support Group and at least 3 other American units are eliminated before the end of turn 6, unless the Americans eliminate more units than the Germans.

US victory : The US player wins if he eliminates at least one more unit than the German player.

CAMPAIGN Any eliminated characters will be present in the next

SCENARIO 4 - BRIEFING

WE'VE GOT A BANK TO ROB...

The bank is in sight. The gang slips quietly into Clermont to take up positions. Impossible for Oddball to appear in silence with his Sherman. They wait until the Germans start up the Tigers to run the engines warm. Whilst this noise masks the rumble of Oddball's tank, he rolls into town. As general Colt and the army are approaching fast, there's no time to waste. Nothing left to do but to take out the metal monsters, eliminate any encountered infantry resistance, open the bank doors, find a truck, load up the crates and Skedaddle! Piece of cake....

The expansions, Carentan, Sainte-Mère-Eglise, Wittmann and the US Army box are required to play this scenario.
If you don't have Bill Furlong, use a US paratrooper sharpshooter as replacement.

1- BATTLEFIELD AND DEPLOYMENT

2- COMPOSITION OF THE ARMIES

Campaign
Any US tanks marked CAMPAIGN can only be deployed if they survived scenario 2.
The Panzerfausts marked CAMPAIGN are granted to the German player if the American player starts with 3 tanks.

3- SETUP

Remove, from both decks : all Artillery and Aviation, Precision.

Place 2 piles of 4 gold crates in the bank (city hall on CA3-A) as shown on the map.

Position the 2 German SDKFZ as indicated on the map.

Otto is installed inside his tank in German deployment zone A, the Ostruppen start in zone B, Von Ballot in zone C. Park the Tiger next to the church as shown on the map. This tank can not be activated until Von Ballot has boarded it.

Other German units are deployed in zone D.

The American player positions Bill Furlong way up in the bell tower, Cowboy on the first floor. Big Joe, Crapgame and Kelly (Clint) are placed in the US deployment zones.
The other American units enter through the squares marked with a green arrow, in the Activation Phase with an order or without an order during the Supply Phase.

The American player has initiative. Place the US marker on turn 1.

Both players draw 4 cards.

4- PARTICULAR INFORMATION

The game is played in 8 turns.

The American player must load up as many crates as possible before the end of turn 8.An SDKFZ can only be destroyed if it's controlled. One unit or hero must be on board to control and drive an SDKFZ. Any unit or hero is allowed.
A single hero alone on board the SDKFZ acts as driver only and can not shoot the vehicle's MG. Several persons are required on board to drive and shoot.
Picking up a crate doesn't end movement. A unit must be adjacent to a gold crate and spend 1 movement point to pick it up. Dropping a crate costs no movement points.

Otto
Otto has orders to protect the bank. He can't leave zone A. Only after the Tiger was dealt at least one type of damage, Clint or Big Joe must end their movement adjacent to the tank in order to make Otto change sides. He is now controlled by the American player and 1 gold crate loaded into an SDKFZ is set aside at the end of the game.
It's pointless to make a deal when the tank menace is gone. If the Tiger ends up destroyed, Otto does not get a gold crate.

Tiger tanks and narrow spaces
If a Tiger tank is positioned in a narrow space, then the firing arc of it's main gun is reduced to 45° facing to the front. Take the center of the turret and the marks on the side of the vehicle counter to visualize the firing arc.

All the green zones on the map are narrow spaces.

Turn 6 : The American player must control the main objective before the end of turn 6. If he fails to do so the game ends as a German victory.
Once the objective is under control, an SDKFZ must be positioned next to the bank, to be loaded with as many gold crates as possible.

5- VICTORY CONDITIONS

US victory : The US player wins the game and the campaign if at least 3 gold crates are loaded before the end of turn 8.
Minor US victory if 3 or 4 crates are loaded.
Normal US victory if 5 or 7 crates are loaded.
Major US victory if 8 crates are loaded.

If Otto has joined Kelly, 1 crate is subtracted from the score.

Any other result is a German victory.
