PURPLE HEART DRAW - JULY 11

July 11th, the “Hollywood” Battlegroup commander orders immediate rallying to the the 23rd infantry battalion commander, 2nd Infantry division.

Situation : at 0700 hours, the 19th US Corps starts the attack on Saint-Lo and the Perier road (30°, 35° and 29° ID). The 5th corps, 2nd ID, will protect the eastern flank. Objectives for the 2nd ID : hill 192 and St-Lo/Bayeux road, no later than H+12. Expect heavy resistance on rough terrain, numerous elements from the 3rd Fallschirmjäger Regiment, 2nd German Parachutist Corps, with defensive positions, tunnels and pillboxes. Good advance despite losses : hill 192 was taken at midday. 2nd ID (23rd battalion) left flank confronted with very heavy resistance pockets. Armored support unavailable, very heavy losses, progression halted. Armored interventions from 741st battalion do suppress machine-gun nests within buildings on the outskirts of La Croix-rouge and defending the area. Resistance can be forced at Purple Heart Draw, but 23rd battalion is under-manned.

Objective : Intervention of Hollywood Battlegroup for a frontal attack and rupture of the enemy defense line. Departure line: Saint-Georges-d’Elle / Due south progression axis - hill 192 to the right. The road to Bayeux must be taken before the night. Link up with 2nd ID descending from hill 192, west of your arrival position.

Artillery support : none.

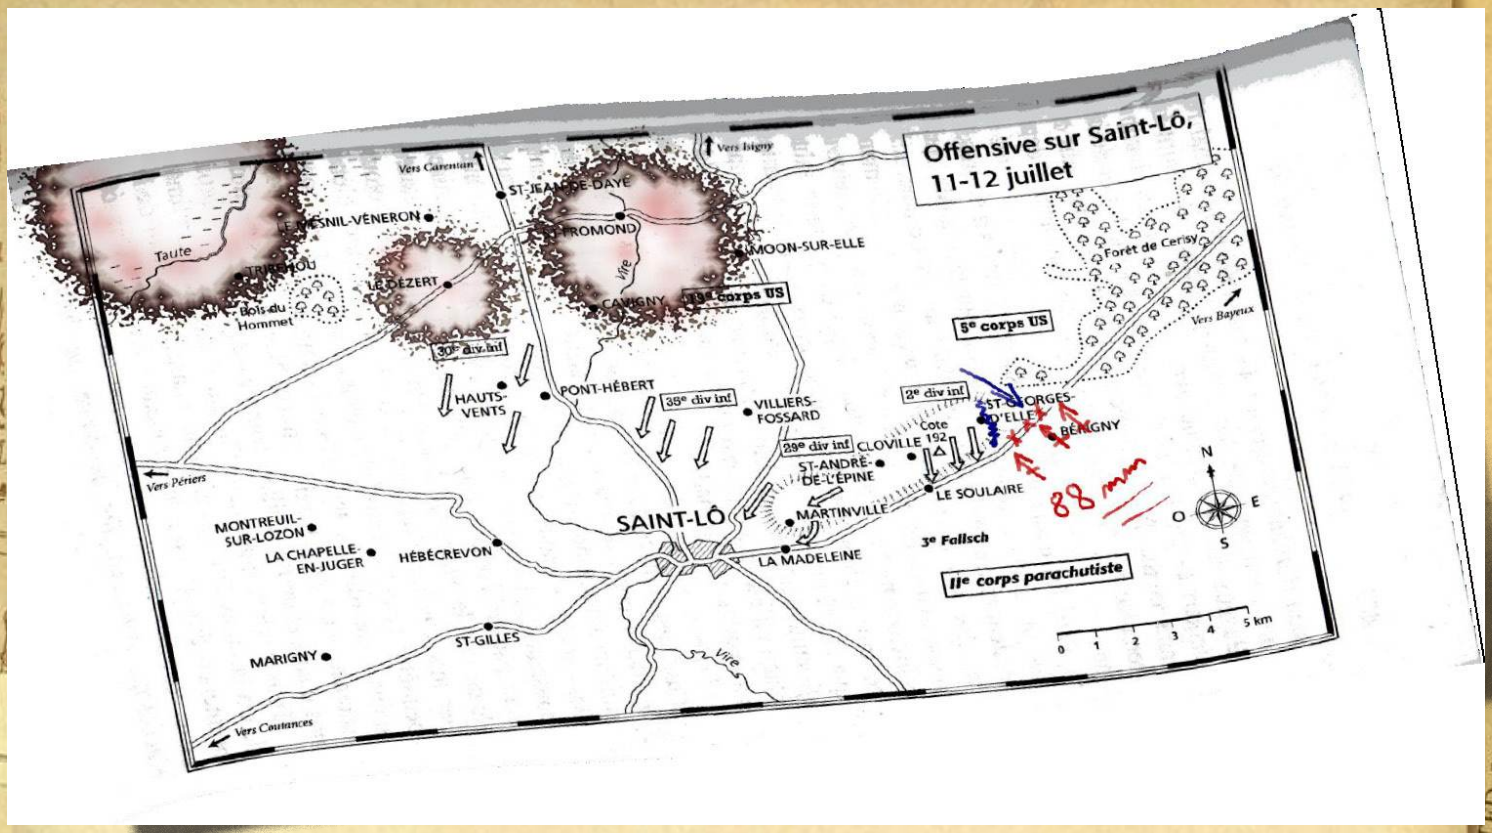

Armored support : none.

Air support : none.

The Honor of the 7th corps lies on you. Good luck.

Major General J. Lawton Collins (7th US Corps)

« Salut Commandant. J'ai entendu dire que l'Etat-Major vous avait refilé une p... de mission. Faut penser PO-SI-TIF ! Ecoutez, depuis ce matin, ça dégringole dur chez les trouffions mais moi, dans ma boite de conserve, j'ai eu le temps de gamberger entre 2 rafales de couverture dans les haies. Les schleux ont bien morflé aussi et ça m'étonnerait qu'ils restent beaucoup de para dans cette poche. Par contre, mon mignon, au sud de la route, c'est du lourd : des troupes mais surtout de l'artillerie et des batteries de 88 ! Et comme à leur habitude, les allemands ont relevé les positions de tir et on se chope du plomb plus vite que la chtouille dans un bordel marocain. Alors, j'ai décidé de vous accompagner, histoire de me dérouiller. C'est pas une bonne nouvelle, ça, mon mignon !! Mais faudra faire fissa. Le terrain est une vraie chienlit et je vais être aussi visible qu'une grosse dinde avec une cible lumineuse sur le cul la veille de Thanksgiving pour les gars d'en face qui attendent que ça. Alors pas question que ça coince, je fonce et vous avez intérêt à suivre. Quant à l'artillerie, j'ai un pote à moi qui pourrait peut-être vous arranger un p'tit feu d'artifice...

Et ça serait bien si vos sous-off allez voir les gars de la 3e compagnie. Ils ont une super technique pour neutraliser les nids de mitrailleuse. Toujours bon à prendre, hein... Ouah !! Ouahouou !!

En fait, moi, c'est Oddball, mon mignon ».

1- BATTLEFIELD AND DEPLOYMENT

2- COMPOSITION OF ARMIES

3- SETUP

Without looking, randomly select 4 Bonus Tactics markers and place them on the Battlefield.

Remove the following cards from the american deck:
Weak Point, Precision, Panzerfaust, Bogged down, Ram, Hit and run, Don't stop, Surprise and all the Artillery and Airstrike cards.

Put aside the M 101 Howitzer card from the american deck.

Remove the following cards from the german deck :

Weak Point, It bounced right off it, Repairs, Ram, Hit and run, Don't stop, Booby-trapped, Surprise and all the Artillery and Airstrike cards.

Put aside one copy of Nebelwerfer, SDKFZ 124 Wespe, 88mm Flak 18, SDKFZ 165 Hummel from the german deck.

Units are deployed in their corresponding deployment zone.

The German player deploys first but the American player has the initiative.
Place the corresponding marker on space 1 of the turn count

4- PLAYING THE GAME

This game lasts 8 turns.
The American player must control the most objectives before the end of turn 8.

From turn 2 (american) : At the end of the Order phase, the American player roll 1 die. On a result of 6 or more, he can play an Howitzer card immediately. The american event marker is placed on the next event marker position.
Otherwise, the american event marker is placed on the next event marker position and a cumulative +1 bonus is given.
A die result of 1 (before any bonus adding) is always a failure.

A partir du tour 2 (allemand) : At the end of the Order phase, the german player can play 1 of his available Artillery card immediately. The played card will not be available for the next turn.
Germans had a nasty habit (for US) to plot almost always strategic firing positions. This allowed them to have a formidable artillery accuracy without line of sight.
The German player will have to choose for each blast template on the Artillery card a target (from 1 to 8, symbolized by a blast template on the map). The dispersal roll must be launched for each blast template.
The event marker is placed on the next event marker position.

5- TUNNELS AND HIDING PLACES

« La 2e DI américaine a affronté sur la côte 192 la 3e Div. Parachutiste allemande qui avait truffé les haies à flanc de coteau de positions de tir camouflées, de tunnels et de casemates de terre. L'artillerie et les mortiers de 50mm allemands étaient pointés sur toutes les haies en approche, tandis que des canons antiaériens de 20 mm prenaient en enfilade la route en contrebas. A l'arrière, du côté sud de la route de Bayeux, de l'artillerie et des chars étaient toujours prêts à fournir un appui.
L'attaque de la 2e DI se déroula conformément au plan, mieux que tout autre opération de ce genre dans le bocage mais l'affaire n'en fut pas moins un « sale boulot ». Même quand on avait l'impression qu'une zone de haies avait été totalement nettoyée, des allemands surgissaient encore de passage cachés et tiraient dans le dos des américains. »

A unit with Ambush special ability can hide itself in a tunnel or a hiding place. For that, it must be able to activate its Ambush special ability AND be present in a terrain element or overlay in its deployment zone (except defensive position). Players must indicate it by any marker of their choice.

The German player can give an Order token to this unit and flip it during its activation in order to make a Fire or an Assault (the use of Sneaky shot card permits to the unit to stay hidden). If it moves, it loses its hidden status and then again be suject to Ambush rules.

When the unit is flipped, the German player can choose any empty adjacent space to the hidden unit, including open terrain (without terrain element or overlay). ZoC does not influence a hidden unit.

To be spotted, an enemy infantry unit must be present on 1 of the 8 spaces adjacent to the hidden unit at the end of the Supply phase. A +1 bonus is given for each enemy unit present in 1 of the 8 spaces adjacent to the hidden unit, if, and only if, these units did not make a shot or an assault during this turn. An enemy unit which is adjacent to more than one hidden unit gives a bonus for each Searching roll.

On a result of 6 or more, the hidden unit is discovered and flipped. For his positioning, the German player follows the rules above.

The German player can not have more than 4 Hidden units during the same turn.

6- A FEW CLEVER SOLDIERS

The good guys of 23e Battalion right company of 2e DI perfected, near the shelf mark 192 hill top, a technique which consisted of firing frag grenades with a rifle gun that were causing a blast over the German machine guns.

When a unit uses a "Rifle Grenade", the American player can choose the following caracteristics :

- Range : 4 spaces (and not interspaces)
- Fire type : need a Clear LoS
- Effect : Suppressive Fire with +4 bonus (do not multiplicate this bonus)

5- END OF GAME AND VICTORY

US victory : if the player has 2 objectives, minor victory. If he has 3 or more objectives, major victory.

German victory : if the player has 2 objectives, minor victory. If he has 3 or more objectives, major victory.
